TO ADVERTISERS.

The Breathitt County News has now the largest circulation of any paper in Eastern Kentucky. Merchants and business men are invited to take advantage of this splendid advertising medium. If you have never advertised with us give us a chance. If you make your appeal for trade through The News it will reach the largest and most intelligent class of buyers in this community. Your ads will be read by them and they will become your customers. Try it and see.

For all kinds of Xmas goods go to Jones' Bargain Store. He can save you money.

Miss Gracie Davis returned to Hampton Sunday to finish teaching Taylor Hurst's school.

Walter R. Day and family, recently of Frozen, have moved to Eldorado, Ark. They will be much missed at their former home.

Breck Flinchum has accepted a position as salesman with M. S. Crain and desires all his friends to call and see him.

Isaac Holbrook, of Bays, and Mrs. Mary Ann Fugate, of Jackson, were married at the residence of Wm. D. Back on December 12, Judge S. S. Taulbee, officiating.

Mrs. Nellie Flannery, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Marcum, for the past two weeks, is visiting Mrs. Tarry at Winchester.

Miss Emma Crawford returned to Jackson Saturday afternoon after three weeks in Lexington under special medical treatment. We are glad to note that she is very much improved.

Holiday Rates, via Queen & Crescent Route. Tickets on sale December 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 1907, and January 1, 1908, with final limit January 6, 1908. Ask agents for particulars or write H. C. King, C. P. A., Lexington, Ky.

Logan Hammond, who was accidentally shot at Lee city on November 5, became suddenly worse last week and was in a very bad condition at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, gangrene being threatened. His life was despaired of and his mother was sent for. He has improved greatly in the last week and is now believed to be out of danger.

Among those from Jackson who attended the inauguration of Gov. Willson at Frankfort last week were D. D. Hurst, Kelly Kash, J. Wise Hagins, R. A. Hurst, Z. T. Hurst, E. C. Kash, John C. Griffith, Andrew Hays, S. H. Hurst, and Mrs. J. B. Marcum. They reported it to be a great occasion, probably the largest crowd ever seen in Frankfort on a similar occasion.

In Honor of Miss Terry. Miss Belle Begley, of Peabody, Lee county, entertained a number of friends at her home last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Ruth C. Terry, of Turkey. After a delicious candy party, enjoyed in the dining room, the guests assembled in the parlor, where popular games were played. A more enjoyable time was never witnessed. Pianos, Dolls, Doll Buggies, Rocking horses at Jones' store.

Canoe.

Miss Julia Little made a business trip to Jackson Saturday. Joe Little has his house about finished. Everything he had was destroyed by fire. He wants to thank all his friends through The News that helped him to repair his house. Everybody on Canoe is in good heart since the inauguration of Gov. Willson. Sarah, Clara and Lizzie Callahan and Julia Little visited Henderson Sebastian Friday.

Santa Claus at Jones' store.

Hello, Santa!

Where are you going to be this year? At Jones' store, of course. Come around and meet me there.

No. 10.

I have posted my land for the purpose of prohibiting people from hunting or trespassing or permitting them to run at large on same, or on land situated on the north bank of the Kentucky river, in Breathitt county, Ky., and about two miles from Jackson.

Given under my hand this December 12th, 1907.

M. M. SNOWDEN.

Simon.

James Oaks and Deat Turner have returned from Catlettsburg, where they have been attending U. S. court. M. Dunn and wife attended the auction at Lee City last week. Bud Dunn and Mrs. I. B. Dunn, accompanied by J. W. Dunn and daughter, Miss Maggie, made a business trip to Jackson Monday.

Get your best girl one of those five pound boxes of Lowrey's candies for Xmas at C. Hadden's.

Crockettsville.

Xmas is drawing near and all the little folks are anxiously waiting for the time to come when good Santa Claus will bestow the presents that he has for them. Leonard Deaton has a magazine shooting cane with which he says he will serenade Miller Branch and Crockettsville. The firm of McDaniel Brothers is investing considerable in railroad ties. They have furnished the Barton & Riley mill with 600 or 700 tie cuts and are not half through yet.

The ban on immigration is to prevent the bad capacities of all those who wish to indulge. It is hoped that the Juniors and other orders who believe in a sober business life will be able to do away with the curse, as it seems almost impossible for the law to stamp it out.

OWSLEY COUNTY. Eversole.

Ray Davidson, of this place, and Miss Emma Moore, of Island Creek, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock last week, Ezekial Spencer officiating. Mr. Davidson is a son of Allen Davidson, and a teacher of this county. The bride is a daughter of William Moore and is one among the prettiest girls in this county. We extend our congratulations and wish them much success.

Brown Shepherd, of Booneville, who has been in California and Oregon for five years, has returned to old Kentucky, but says he will not make his home here. J. C. Rose has sold to Roger Callahan 29 shoats for $108.75. Walker Bowman, of Le Rose, and Miss Alice Slipp, of Booneville, were married at the home of the bride last Tuesday. Miss Emma D. Cawood, daughter of H. B. Cawood, died at her home Saturday morning after an illness of about two weeks with the measles and pneumonia. She was always kind to those whom she associated with, a loving daughter and an obedient pupil at school. She was about 15 years old. Just before she died she repeated time and again, "All right; all right with Jesus, and now I lay me down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to keep; and if I die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take." Roy Cawood, her little brother, is not expected to live. The family has our deepest sympathy.

Few Clothes.

Young men and ladies with ambition should learn telegraphy. Under the new eight hour law, which goes into effect next March, over 18,000 additional telegraphers are required by the railroads in the United States. Positions pay from $60 to $80 per month to beginners. You can qualify in three or four month's time. For full particulars write to the National Telegraph Institute, Cincinnati, O.

THE Jr. O. U. A. M.

BY ELD. J. D. HUNTER.

CANNEL CITY, Ky., 12, 18, '07.

Illinois received the next highest number, 79,136; New Jersey, 68,821; Ohio, 51,050; Missouri, 15,286; Wisconsin, 15,878. Of the New England States Massachusetts found place for 48,091; Connecticut, 33,027; Rhode Island, 6,159; Maine, 1,642. Of the newcomers 22,673 went direct to California.

Since the year 1850 the population of foreigners in New York has increased from 515,000 to over 4,000,000, and I find of this number 600,000 are of foreign birth. Wonderful has been the increase in population of the United States within these 120 years of its national life. Stupendous has been its increase in wealth and rapid its rise to the position it now holds as a world power. The less than four millions of population at the time of the adoption of the constitution have grown to eighty-five millions, exclusive of our insular possessions, which add ten millions more to the total. That a very large part of this great increase in population has been the result of foreign immigration is beyond dispute.

Taking the census of 1900, the latest available figures, covering all points of the question, as a basis, out of a total population of 85,000,000 there were 65,843,302 native born, and 10,460,085 of foreign birth. True Americans have no prejudice against a man because he was born in a foreign land. They demand equal rights for him under the law, and accord equal privileges to him under their political system, if they can do so with safety to their country institutions. But with immigration so increasing and unrestricted, citizenship so easy and cheap, and a growing ignorance and lawlessness already holding the balance of power in three fourths of the States of our union, all patriotic citizens recognize the necessity for stricter immigration and naturalization laws, for a more general education of the youth of our land, and a deeper reverence for law and authority.

To the speedy accomplishment of these things the patriotism of today commands us against all lawlessness. We trust the virtue and courage of the American people against ignorance, bigotry and superstition we trust a free press, free speech.

The past history of these immigrants coming to this country has proved to us that they know little and care less about any principles involved in any issue to be decided by the vote of the American people. They are ready and willing to give their votes where it will profit them at the present time the most. They regard their votes as so much stock in trade to be used to their own advantage and profit. They flock together and vote not as Americans but foreigners forming distinct factions, and are being used by political parties, office seekers, who have no regard for patriotism, but are seeking partyism and are willing to lower the standing of patriotism in order to gain their points. The worthy and unworthy from all lands are crowding our shores to share our great fortunes. Vast multitudes, who are grossly ignorant and who are not in sympathy with our institutions, are annually coming and many are becoming citizens. Many have not left their political animosities behind them and make our soil the skirmish ground of conflicts to be fought in foreign lands with whose government we are at peace.

Many come for beggary and criminal conspiracies against our laws. Many will not work themselves nor permit other men to work. Many boycott their neighbors and deny to American boys a participation in trades that are thrown open to the foreign tramp, the escaped convict and exiled mendicant to enjoy.

Farmers in the Southwest are getting rich
on the increasing value of their farms.

Not very many years ago Illinois and Iowa land sold for ten dollars an acre. More recently Nebraska lands sold at that price. Look at them now. What makes them so high? The land is no better than it was then. What caused the price to go up? People—nothing but people, and lots of them. History will repeat itself in the Southwest—only it will not take so long. The Southwest is growing very fast; much faster than any other part of the country. Iowa or Nebraska land. But there is more land than there are people, that's the only reason it's so cheap. How long do you think it will take the Southwest to get as many people to the farm acre as Illinois or Iowa have? Just about five years—ten at the very outside. When that time comes you will have to pay just as much for land in the Southwest as you would pay in Illinois or Iowa.

Why not buy your farm in the Southwest now—when you can get it cheap—cheap enough for you to get a big one? A few years hence you will be looked upon just as the man who owns 640 acres in Illinois is looked upon to-day—as a substantial, well-to-do, leading member of your community.

The low rate excursions via the Rock Island-Elgin Lines the first and third Tuesdays of each month, offer you an opportunity to see the Southwest at very little cost. Take this opportunity to get away from the cold for a few days, and enjoy the delightful weather the Southwestern farmer is having.

Let me send you some interesting literature about the Southwest to read these long evenings. Our books about Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma are full of photographs and reliable information—the very information a man thinking of settling in one of these states ought to have. I'll send you absolutely free any of these books you want.

The Rock Island-Elgin Lines have no lands for sale and are only interested in getting good, energetic settlers for the fertile unoccupied lands along their lines. To such men every help possible is freely given. Write today and let us help you find a better location.

The Christmas Spirit.

What man is there in this broad land, who, when the yule tide approaches, feels not the Christmas spirit animating his being? As a result of this the boy gives vent to happy yells, the youth feels kindled with joyous animations of love, and age lives again the receding past and enjoys in hopeful reproduction the days of buoyant strength. The atmosphere and elements about us find change in keeping pace with this courting spirit, and all the altitudes and depths, and expanses, and circles; and all the orchestras, and choirs, and legions join the upward acclaim in sweetest melody.

What hope is there that will not be renewed; when in this mingling of sweets and bitters and joys there is produced the sole compound of highest happiness; when cheerful spirits are made to rise and soar in the infinite labyrinths above; in the region where sorrow has found succor and joy is built on joy; where life springs eternal, and beauty and existence, seem a perennial song and where shouts of earth mingle with music celestial in this thrice welcome and golden day. The Christmas spirit is no lifeless myth, but is a living and surging reality, and who feels it not, feels not the kindest animation that was ever born and cherished in the human soul. It is and ever was, yea, has been here since first the angels sang a Redeemer born in the hills of ancient Chaldea, and ages that have since come and gone have felt and borne the wave of this joy that was first caroled in heavenly song. It is the crest, the finer cord, the gilding touch in the annual rounds and sums of human joys; the guiding angel and heavenly pilot that leads from the regions and dominions of earthly sensualities, out beyond the borders of human dust, out toward still to where the finite ends on shores of infinitude.

The Inauguration.

A News writer who attended the inauguration of Governor Willson at Frankfort last week was impressed with the general good will and hearty accord that was manifest throughout the great throng of people that was present. From the private citizen who appeared along the thoroughfares and street corners to the state militiamen and distinguished citizens who moved in the endless procession, even though of varied political views, there were evidenced a general belief that a new era and a new epoch in Kentucky was being opened.

A striking feature of the ceremonies, and the processions and receptions was the very plain and informal manner in which Governor Willson assumed the great duties of office; the heartiness and kindness with which he met even the humblest citizen by whom his hand was sought, and all felt that his was to be an administration of justice, fairness and equanimity. He impresses one as a great man, a great lawyer, a great statesman and a great governor, and even on his first inception into office it was felt that the honor of Kentucky and its citizens was safe. Long live the Governor, and God speed his every act for the people's sake, and may we have in truth, as has been promised, an era of supreme peace and good feeling.

Hon. J. Lawrence McCoy, one of the leading Republicans of Eastern Kentucky has announced as a candidate for delegate from the State at large to the Republican National Convention, which is to be held in Chicago, on June, 16th, next, and a published interview from him in some of the leading papers of the State of last Sunday's issue sets forth his views on the national questions. In his statement he says that he has no overwhelming ambition to be given this honor, but that in order to set the ball rolling in Kentucky in regard to national issues and candidates he thinks it proper to set forth his views in public statement; and that if the Republicans of the State favor others for this honor he will be fully satisfied with the result. He says that he is for Secretary Taft for President in 1908 as against all other candidates including the President, and he sets forth strong reasons why Mr. Taft is the most logical candidate of the Republican party. He further says that he favors the policies and principles of the administration of President Roosevelt and will vote for the candidate for President who will carry his principles to their logical conclusion. He further says that he believes that Mr. Taft will be able to carry the State of Kentucky for the Republican ticket as against Mr. Bryan or anyone else, and that he is the only man who can accomplish this.

Mr. McCoy is well known throughout the State and is one of the leading orators and advocates of his party. The mountain counties of Eastern Kentucky and those of the Bluegrass where he is known will hope to see him elevated to this honor.

A full line of fruits, candies, nuts, etc., for Xmas at C. Hadden's.

Kash Williams, of Stevenson, accompanied his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Williams, to Lexington on their western trip.

Mrs. Silas Taulbee and Mrs. Martha Lovely, of Taulbee, went to Louisville Wednesday to visit Mrs. Carpenter's children, who are in the Masonic Home there.

testimony for three days denying material allegations of plaintiff's witnesses.

The Railway Commission was re-organized last week by the election of A. T. Siler, of Whitley county, as chairman. M. R. Glenn, a Democrat, at the request of Gov.
Willson, was retained in the office of rate clerk temporarily in order to teach the office force their new duties and to close up some work which he had begun.

You can't buy shoes of us without becoming a friend to our store.
Scores come again and again. Customers testify to this. We are after the business of every person who wants

BIG VALUES FOR HIS MONEY
and to get this business we are putting on our shelves such shoes only as contain in every pair as much quality, style and comfort as it is possible to put into a shoe.
This we find easy. We always carry in stock a full line of the celebrated Million Dollar Hayne-Henson shoe line, out of Knoxville, than which none better and but few equals are made on the American continent or any other continent. Come in and buy a pair and get the biggest supply of shoe satisfaction you ever had.

No Paper Next Week.

As has been our custom since we began the publication of The Breathitt County News, we will not get out any paper next week.
We believe printers and editors should have a chance to enjoy the holidays, as well as other people, which they can not do and do their regular work. So we wish you all a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year, and will come to see you again the first Friday
in January as usual.

Acknowledgments.

The editor having been called out of town this week on account of the illness of his wife, acknowledgments are made to Kelly Kash for editorial work and other assistance.

They Want Your Trade.

Another Fugitive Caught

Ira Boggs who was indicted in this court for horse stealing and who escaped, was arrested in New Mexico last week. Requisition papers have been asked and Flint Davis, a deputy sheriff of this county, left Wednesday for New Mexico to convey him back here.

All kinds of nuts at C. Hadden's.

Allen Creech Arrested.

Allen Creech, who stands indicted in this court for the murder of Charlie Robertson and who escaped from jail here about eighteen months ago, was arrested at Williamson, W. Va., last week. Requisition papers were granted by Gov. Willson on the Governor of West Virginia, and W. N. Cope was appointed to convey him back here and he will be brought back in a few days. Jailer Little offered a reward of $100 for his capture.

Water sets very cheap at Jones'
store.

College Entertainment.

If ever an opportunity was given in Jackson to hear something that was worthy of being heard, it was the entertainment at the college last Tuesday night. This entertainment was deserving of a large house, not only because it was a worthy cause but because it was given by home talent.

All of the participants were amateurs, but for the length of time that they have practiced they did fine and they deserve much praise. The college should feel encouraged in giving another play before the school year closes. The college was limited in paraphernalia and all the more credit is to be given that the plays were produced as well as they were.

It would require too much space to comment on the two plays and on each player, but each one played their part well. In the play, "Up to Freddie," which proved to be quite interesting and most cleverly rendered, all the principals and promoters may be proud of the result. The principal actors, Olie Pollard, Jessie Patton and Ernest Newland, won the applause from the audience.
No one in the college could have played the part of "Freddie Thatchah" any better than Ernest Newland. Miss Jessie Patton, as "Marguerite Burnett," was certainly the star player. She seemed to be more at ease on the stage than any of the others and with practice she could soon rise above an amateur.

In the play, "The Sniggles, Family," Miss Nancy Begley had the hardest part and as the mother of eight beautiful daughters, most all of marriageable age, she had reasons to be proud of her family and she exhibited them to the audience in a pleasing manner and each one of her daughters enamored many a young man in the house. It would be hard to say which one of the daughters did the best.

Mrs. Crego is to be commended in the drilling of these plays and especially in the short time that she did it. It was altogether a most pleasant entertainment and those who missed it were immeasurable losers. We hope that the college will give us another such play, for we have only found out what our students are able to do.

I have on display forty different varieties of candies to select from.
C. HADDEN.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Tax warrants issued against all unpaid taxes November 1st. An additional penalty will be added January 10. I would be pleased to have you pay your taxes before that time as it will save you expense and myself trouble.

Yours respectfully,
BRECK CRAWFORD, Sheriff.

Some of our correspondence came in too late this week.

It appears that Gov. Willson has done more to quell the tobacco troubles in western Kentucky in one week than Beckham did during his whole term.

For all kinds of nuts, cakes and candies go to Haddix's.

Simple Home Recipe.

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney trouble, weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

He Fired the Stick.
"I have fired the walking stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Hill, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, etc., by Jackson Drug Co. 25c.

Post—So you think I should put fire into my verses? Editor—My dear sir, quite the reverse.—Exchange.

CIRCUS DAY IN BOSTON.

A Boston kid of knee pants age was crying nigh the dingo's cage. While round about the circus throng Was humming joyously along.

Sax I to him, sax I. "Young feller, Explain yourself—why do you better?" Sax he, "The aard-vark, aoudad, mink, The musquash, mandrill, missing link, The orang, eland, kinkajou, The quagga, oryx, caribou, The panda, nyghau, kangaroo, The ay-a-ye, wou-wou, mohou, The budeng, bongo, banteng, gnu, The polio, pongo, wandero, The pica, para, paba, brook, The bobac, cuscus, bontebok, The puku, pudu, puma, moose, The dugong, dingo, drill, mongoose, The hoolock, howler, markhor goat, The lingang, lotis, nakong, stoat, The ibex, isard, kudu, coon, The highorn, blesbok, ape, baboon, The bison, ant, bear, bubaline, The weasel, wombat, volvereine."

"Come, come," sax I. "I want the fack. Let's git right down to plain brass tacks. The thing I want to know, young feller, is—why in tunket do you better?" His gold rim specs he mopped up dry. An' then he drawed a lung deep sigh. "I yearn to own these beasts," sax he, "But dearth of lucre frustrates me—Hing him (beehoo) lachrymely!"

Sax I to him, sax I. "Oh—well, Jes' what I see I'll never tell." —Earle Hooker Eaton in Bohemian.

According to Scripture.
"Young man," said the clerical looking customer to the clerk at the book counter, "that purchase of mine amounted to $1.50, I believe?" "Yes, sir."

"Well, I gave you a two dollar bill at least twenty minutes ago, and I haven't received my 50 cents back yet." "Very sorry, sir," replied the clerk, "but you know what the good book says on this point." And, politely handing the customer a Bible, he pointed to Job, fourteenth chapter, fourteenth verse. "All the days of my life will I wait till my change come."—Bohemian Magazine.

Making Home Attractive.
A district visitor in the slums of London asked the wife of a notorious drinker why she did not keep her husband from the public house. "Why don't you make your home look more attractive?" she asked. "I'm sure I've tried 'ard to make it 'ome-like, ma'am," was the reply. "I've took up the parlor carpet and sprigged sawdust on the floor and put a beer barrel in the corner, but, lor', ma'am, it ain't made a bit of difference."

Where Johnny Put the "Q."
A teacher in a New England school had found great difficulty in training her pupils to pronounce final "q." One day when a small boy was reading he came to a sentence that he pronounced as follows: "What a good time I am havin'!"

"No, Johnny," interrupted the teacher, "you made a mistake. Don't you remember what I've been telling you? Try that last sentence again." Johnny reread as before, "What a good time I am havin'!"

"No, no," said the teacher a little impatiently. "Don't you know all I've told you about pronouncing the 'q'?" Johnny's face lightened, and he began again confidently, "Now, what a good time I am havin'!"—Everybody's.

Easily Satisfied.
Shaughnessy, hearing that the bank in which he kept his savings had failed, rushed around with his bankbook and demanded his money. The teller began to count it out.

"Oh, ye've got it, have ye?" said Shaughnessy, with a sigh of relief. "Kase it, then. Oh, don't want it as long as ye have it."

Pala of the President.
Colonel Harry Hall of Pittsburg was in London riding on top of a bus. He asked the driver several questions, and then the driver said, "You have not one of his, sir?"

"No," Hall replied; "I am an American!" "Hamerica is a fine place, sir. Hi lived there once."

"Where?" "Why, sir, Hi lived in Washington. Hi was coachman for Sir Frederick W. Bruce when 'e was minister there, sir. We was most familiar with the hold Grant, sir, when he were president—most familiar!"

"How was that?" inquired the astonished Hall.

"Why, sir, my master was a pettish friend—most pettish. Many's the night I have driven 'im to the White House and sat there, 'im on the bouside an' me hou the bouside, for 'ouside at a time."

Little Acts of Kindness.
Walter's mother had made a point of teaching him to be kind to animals. "Oh, mother," he exclaimed one day. "I'm sure you will like the little girl who's moved in next door! She's so kind to animals!"

"She looks like a nice little girl," said Walter's mother, "and I think I shall like her, but how is she kind to animals?"

"We had some chestnuts just now, and she found a worm in one, and she didn't eat it!"—Lippincott's.

GET RICH QUICK.

Schemes of this class have again come to grief along with the gullible investors, causing serious loss to innocent business concerns, as is always the case of panics in Wall St.

While this last lesson is yet fresh in mind, it is an opportune moment to consider causes and means to avoid like trouble in the future.

Direct your attention to that greatest of all Newspapers the Cincinnati Enquirer. From its columns one can readily detect the trend of currency, its lodging places, by whom handled, uses made of it, and final results.

Again you read quotations of Bonds, Stocks, and Securities of every nature, fixing Status of all business from the retailer, to United States Government.

Also Current News, facts and reliable data covering the entire world; all sufficiently explicit to enable thinking people to avoid snags and follow the channel of success.

Its extra size and high price, is the secret of its ability to discover, obtain, print and serve its patrons with all the news, and cater to wants of people in every calling of life.

The Weekly Enquirer for the year 1908 has greatly increased its Clubbing offers which now include the most select and popular publications of the day at prices slightly over half the regular Subscription rates.

Do not overlook the fact that the year 1908 promises to excel in prosperity any of the past, and that the Enquirer printed at Cincinnati, Ohio, is one of the most reliable sources of information.
